would be happy to sign a memo on part-time employment.

He suggests it:

- Acknowledge that some components are using part-time employees and suggest that others may want to take advantage of the expertise they offer when help is not otherwise available.
- Take note of the changes in work habits thus making part-time employment attractive to many.
- Refer career heads to OP for follow-up.

Some of the 'features' of part-time employment in first draft might be included; but last paragraph--and its suggestion that our practices may differ from those described in the attachment--raises question of whether last paragraph and attachment should go to the Deputies.
